

News from Brazil...

John and Flor Evans have recently returned from Brazil to Mexico. Here they update us on how the work is progressing in both countries...

John and Flor Evans in Rio

We left Brazil two months ago, having completed the handover of the church in Rio de Janeiro to Michael Rawlins. Michael is bringing Brazilian guys through and training them to help lead the church. There are about thirty people in the church, and it is a blessing that many of these have leadership potential.

An advantage of having their own building to meet in is that they are able to offer English classes free of charge to people from the local community, which they run twice a week. They welcome about twenty students at present, several of whom have visited the church as a result, so it is a great inroad into the community. John will be returning in October for a week to encourage and strengthen them.

...and Mexico!

Now back in Guadalajara, Mexico, and having spent time getting our own house back in order, we are working with two churches; Renacimiento (Re-birth) led by Ruben Diaz and El Camino, led by Arturo Lee. Hopefully both of these leaders will be joining us for the celebration in Greece next year. There are various groups, really mini-missions, being established on the outskirts of town. We are helping to train leaders, and they are all expectant and excited about what God is doing and will continue to do in Mexico.

Ray Lowe (UK) and Josh Yakos (Montana, USA) are with us and the churches in Guadalajara this month to strengthen and encourage the leaders.

Please continue to pray for the work of God in both Brazil and Mexico – thank you!
